

Drug and Alcohol Counsellor – Narrogin

Holyoake - Wheatbelt Community Alcohol and Drug Service (WCADS)

Holyoake is a leading provider of counselling and support services for people impacted by alcohol and other drugs. We operate the WCADS and invite applications from suitably qualified Counsellors to work in our Narrogin office in a part time capacity.

We would like to hear from professionals who have expertise in the delivery of quality counselling to individuals and families who present with alcohol and/or other drug issues and complex needs. This is a great opportunity to work within a dynamic supportive team environment.

This position is based in Narrogin and will require some outreach to various locations within the Southern Wheatbelt. Our counsellors work closely with colleagues and are provided with regular supervision and line management support. Key responsibilities include:

- Maintaining a clinical case load that focusses on comprehensive assessment, planning and the goal setting needs of clients.
- Providing best practice counselling and clinical intervention for individuals, groups, couples and families affected by alcohol and/or other drug use.
- Maintaining clear and comprehensive case notes and files and contributing to record keeping and data entry as required.

Successful applicants will be required to meet the following criteria:

- Tertiary qualification in psychology, social work, counselling or similar
- Knowledge of alcohol and other drug issues
- Understanding of comorbidity in relation to clients presenting for alcohol and drug issues
- Demonstrated assessment, case management and counselling skills
- Ability to work effectively as a team member
- Current National Police certificate and current Working with Children Check

Holyoake is committed to developing employees and provides a flexible and supportive working environment. We offer:

- Very competitive salary, including great salary packaging options
- Flexible working arrangements
- Fantastic opportunity to make a difference for others

Holyoake is committed to achieving a diverse workforce and encourages Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander peoples and others from diverse communities to apply.

To apply, please visit <https://www.holyoake.org.au/about-us/join-our-team/> where you will find a detailed job description and an application for vacancy form. Please submit this form with your Curriculum Vitae and a covering letter addressing the criteria outlined above.
